

Character Matters

Character matters because the public tends to mimic the behavior of their leaders. Christian leaders are encouraged to set positive examples through their words and deeds. All Church leaders have a responsibility to be up right Christian Citizens